Research shows that volunteering and community involvement can alleviate stress and worry, expand perspective, and even improve sleep. Yet with so many deserving causes, along with competing priorities, it can be hard to know where to begin. This session offers tips for exploring your options, overcoming barriers to getting started, embracing what gives you joy and purpose, and measuring your impact.

PSYCHOLOGICAL SAFETY

Tuesday, May 16th @ 11:00am – 12:00pm ET

At its core, psychological safety at work is when team members feel included, safe to contribute, and safe taking interpersonal risks, without fear of being marginalized or embarrassed. What does that look like in action? What does it take to get there? This session will examine what psychological safety is and isn't, along with best practices for fostering a climate of trust and belonging.

THE ART OF FENG SHUI

Wednesday, May 24th @ 1:00pm – 2:00pm ET

The concept of Feng Shui has grown in popularity, but what is it exactly? This session explores what Feng Shui is and what it can do for our minds, bodies, and the spaces we live and work in. Participants will gain an understanding of how to use color and incorporate the five elements of Feng Shui to promote a calming flow and positive energy at work and home.
