

MUSIC for a While

GUEST WEEK MAY 2-5, 2023

The Peabody Institute is pleased to bring back Guest Week this May 2-5 for its Music for a While program, serving hospital staff, patients and caregivers through musical performances in the public spaces of Johns Hopkins Hospital in East Baltimore.

Staff and students with a musical background from all JHM entities will perform alongside Peabody students in several hospital locations. Come out and support your fellow students and colleagues as they showcase their musical skills!
